

About the Agribusiness Conference

The Agribusiness Conference is designed for broker/agents, CSRs, and company representatives who want specialized training in basic farm coverages to niche agribusiness risks. The Agribusiness Conference is unique because it affords participants the opportunity to obtain insurance education on farm and agribusiness risks and to earn the AFIS (Agribusiness and Farm Insurance Specialist) designation.

This Agribusiness Conference is designed around the Agribusiness and Farm Insurance Specialist (AFIS) Designation. AFIS is North America's insurance designation that concentrates on farm and agribusiness insurance risks.

AFIS Part 1 curriculum includes an update on the Current State of the Farm Owners Market, Farm Property, Inland Marine, Special Agribusiness Considerations, Farm Liability, and Liability Endorsements.

AFIS Part 2 curriculum includes Agribusiness Risk Management, Workers' Compensation and Migrant Workers' Act, Farm Auto and Truck Exposures, and Umbrella/Excess.

AFIS Part 3 curriculum includes Farm Pollution, Equipment Breakdown, Custom Farming v. Farm Management, Farm Program Comparison, Food Product Recall & Contamination, and Crop Insurance Overview.
